Milan - May 24, 2016 - Last year marked the beginning of a new era of slower but steady growth for the global personal luxury goods market - including leather accessories, fashion, hard luxury, and fragrance and cosmetics - which reached €253 billion in revenue. This is up 13 percent at current exchange rates from 2014, but only 1 percent in real growth terms, as a result of global challenges that hung heavy over the luxury industry in the last quarter of 2015, including a slow U.S ...
