There are a lot of schools who read Floodland, especially in years 5 and 6 – and with the current situation, I know there are some of you who are halfway through the book, but who, without sufficient copies for every pupil, are unable to finish from home.. So I've recorded the book, chapter by chapter, and the videos are all available here, for you to watch at your leisure.

Floodland – author reading – MARCUS SEDGWICK

Both the sentences have exact words but just the placement of a comma changes the meaning of a sentence. Similarly 'your' and 'you're' are two different words but on many occasions we use them in each other place without noticing. A grammar checker's job is to make sure that your copy is free from similar errors.

"Writers at Work: From Sentence to Paragraph is the first book in a four-book series that provides students with a solid foundation in writing skills. Through the study of vocabulary and grammar, the book helps students to write accurate sentences relating to a topic. In the last three chapters, the book introduces the fundamentals of paragraph writing, and students progress to write basic paragraphs"--

This book bridges the gap between writing paragraphs and writing essays. The second edition of the Student's Book updates the readings written by a wide range of culturally diverse international authors - and adds news supplemental reading lists to most chapters. To move students more quickly into essay writing, the second edition reduces the number of paragraph writing assignments. The book focuses on a single theme per chapter and integrates the reading grammar, and editing activities. It includes assignment-specific peer-response sheets, guides students through peer-response activities, and addresses grammar points in the editing checklist.

Helps students master 300 important words and word parts that are needed for general reading comprehension in high school, college, and the everyday work world.
